NARRABRI SHIRE LIBRARIES

Home Library Service

WHAT IS THE HOME LIBRARY SERVICE?

The library provides free delivery of library materials. The service is personalised to suit your individual reading and listening interests.

Deliveries are made once a month by a library staff member and a volunteer.

If you know of someone who will benefit from this service, please ask them to contact Narrabri Library on 6792 3336

SENIORS ASSIST

If you do not require home delivery, but need assistance with choosing items at the library, or if you have someone who is able to collect items on your behalf and be responsible for their return to the library, please enquire about the Seniors Assist service.

HOME LIBRARY SERVICE

The Home Library Service is provided for people who are unable to visit their local library service.

To be eligible for this service you must reside in the Narrabri Shire Council area and either:

- have a disability or illness which prevents you from visiting the library. The condition may be temporary, recurring or permanent.
- be able to visit a library, but because of frailty or disability are unable to carry items home.
- be a person who is engaged in full time care of someone in either of the above groups.

What can you borrow? According to your individual taste you can borrow:

- Specific titles
- Fiction and non-fiction items
- Regular or large print books
- Audio books including popular fiction and biographies.
- Music CDs
- DVDs such as movies, musicals, documentaries and TV series
- Magazines
